"Well versed. Good instructor who encouraged class participation. Topics were relevant and well presented. Gave me ideas on how to monitor my subordinates and be more accountable as supervisor and mentor."

Sgt. Michael Scott, Pasadena PD

"Very knowledgeable on subject matter. Everything was related back to the management and supervision of investigative units. Material presented in this course revealed weaknesses and important areas in my department. There are several things that I will implement immediately."

Lt. Walt Melnyk, Bryan PD

"Instructor is very knowledgeable on subject matter and presents such in very clear and effective manner. His experience and leadership qualities make him a great instructor for this course. Material is well written, understandable and relevant."
