"I was assigned as a sergeant of investigations with no prior investigations experience. This course helped give me good direction moving forward to develop my team. (The strongest features of this seminar were) the examples provided and group discussion."

"Great class with ideas to improve supervising investigative units. The strategies that were given are easily applicable."

"Knowledgeable and had material relevant all types of investigations. Very personable, good jokes, but remained professional. Would like him for my boss. Good topic coverage about managing the subject of managing informants."
